The card is not transferable, so we would like to draw your attention to the fact that for access to the Business Lounge the card can only be used by the holder, who is also required to present the boarding card. If you are the owner of two or more cards that offer this benefit, they can not be used at the same time to offer free access to the business lounge to a larger number of guests. Access is free of charge for the card holder and a attendant, and starting with the second attendant, the charge is made according to the information presented above, regardless of the number of eligible cards held by the holder.
