Ömer Tetik was appointed as CEO in 2013. Under his leadership, Banca Transilvania has become the largest bank in Romania and Southeast Europe.

He is strongly committed to the growth of the Romanian capital market. His banking career spans more than two decades, with professional experience in Romania, Russia and Turkey.

He started his career at ATA Securities in Izmir, Turkey, before moving to Istanbul a year later to join the Treasury team at Finansbank. In 1997, he became the Treasury and Capital Markets Department Coordinator at Finansbank Moscow. He then moved to Romania in 2000, where his bank appointed him Deputy Vice-president.

A decade later, he became Vice-President and later President of Credit Europe Bank, formerly Finansbank.

Born into a Turkish family in Hamburg, Germany, he studied in Turkey and graduated with a degree in economics from Middle East Technical University.
