

Note to the financial information as at December 31, 2023

The information presented for the period ended December 31, 2023 as well as for the prior periods, was prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union and applicable at that date. The financial information relates to the Bank and the Group and it does not constitute a complete set of financial statements.

The preliminary annual financial statements as at December 31, 2023 are not audited or reviewed and those as at December 31, 2022 are audited.

Banca Transilvania